Commemorating Ahn Eak-tai: Andrea Szego, second from right, president of the Korea-Hungary Society, along with other guests, unveils the base for a statue of the late Korean composer Ahn Eak-tae in Budapest, Hungary, Tuesday. Szego conceived the idea of erecting the statue as part of the 20th anniversary of Korea-Hungary diplomatic relations. Ahn studied in Budapest between 1938 and 1941. Seoul Metropolitan Government has donated money for the statue. From left are Suh Chung-ha, Korean ambassador to Hungary; Oh Se-hoon, mayor of Seoul; Szego; and Arpad Gogl, a Hungarian Parliament member.
