

Embassyline

Hungary

Unveiling of composer Ahn Eak-tai statue: Koreans and Hungarians unveil the statue of Korean composer Ahn Eak-tae (1906-1965) at City Park Varosligetin in Budapest, Hungary, May 11. From left are Papcsak Ferenc, mayor of the 14th District; Andrea Szego, president of the Hungary-Korea Society; Ahn's daughter Leonor Ahn; Kim Hyung-ju, vice mayor of Seoul; Nam Gwan-pyo, Korean ambassador to Hungary; and Csomos Miklos, vice mayor of Budapest. Seoul spent 300 million won to build the statue of the composer who studied there from 1938 to 1941. / Courtesy of Andrea Szego

http://www.koreatimes.co.kr/www/news/special/2012/09/176\_111344.html